RBI Grade B Examination Process

The RBI Grade B examination is a highly competitive and prestigious exam conducted by the Reserve Bank of India to recruit Grade B officers. The examination process is designed to assess the candidate's knowledge, analytical ability, and decision-making skills.

It consists of three stages: Phase-I (Preliminary Exam), Phase-II (Main Exam), and the Interview.

Phase-I: Preliminary Examination

The Phase-I examination is an objective-type test that serves as a screening test. It comprises four sections:

- General Awareness
- Quantitative Aptitude
- English Language
- Reasoning Ability
- Duration: 120 minutes (2 hours)
- Total Marks: 200
- Negative Marking: 0.25 marks for each wrong answer

Section-wise Distribution:

Section	No. of Questions	Maximum Marks
General Awareness	80	80
Quantitative Aptitude	30	30
English Language	30	30
Reasoning Ability	60	60

Candidates who qualify in Phase-I are shortlisted for the Phase-II examination based on their performance.

Phase-II: Main Examination

The Phase-II examination is descriptive and objective in nature and consists of three papers:

❖ Paper-I: Economic and Social Issues (ESI)

- Type: Objective & Descriptive
- Duration: 30 minutes & 90 minutes
- Maximum Marks: 100

❖ Paper-II: English (Writing Skills)

- Type: Descriptive (Essay, Precis Writing, and Comprehension)
- Duration: 90 minutes
- Maximum Marks: 100

❖ Paper-III: Finance and Management (FM)

- Type: Objective & Descriptive
- Duration: 30 minutes & 90 minutes
- Maximum Marks: 100

Candidates are required to write the examination in English only. Based on the aggregate marks secured in Phase-II, candidates are shortlisted for the Interview.

Interview

Candidates who clear Phase-II are called for the Interview round. The Interview is designed to assess the candidate's personality, communication skills, and overall suitability for the role of an RBI Grade B officer.

- Maximum Marks: 75

Final Selection

The final merit list is prepared based on the marks obtained in Phase-II (Main Examination) and the Interview. The weightage of the marks for final selection is:

- Phase-II (Main Examination): 300 marks
- Interview: 75 marks

The candidates are selected based on their performance in both the Main Examination and the Interview. The selected candidates are then offered the position of RBI Grade B Officer, subject to fulfilling all the eligibility criteria and document verification.
